DAY 4 Sunday 15 September Bariloche / Andes Scenic Tour

Bariloche, situated on the shore of the beautiful Lake Nahuel Huapi is an internationally recognised ski resort with steep streets, wooden chalets perched Swiss fashion upon a glacial moraine at the foot of Cerro Otto. Without a doubt, it is the best centre for exploring the Nahuel Huapi National Park and surrounding areas. This morning's pleasant drive follows the southern shore of the Lake Nahuel Huapi. On a good day, you might catch sight of the highest mountain of the area El Tronador (The Thunderer), whose snow-capped peaks rise to 3,554 metres. The road then winds through the coyhue forest, an indigenous evergreen of the beech family. You then follow the southern edge of Lake Moreno under the steep cliffs of Mount Lopez to the spectacular Panoramic Point for a magnificent view looking back towards the Andes mountain range that you've just traversed. The breathtaking view includes Lake Moreno, the Llao-Llao Hotel, and the northern arm of the Lake Nahuel Huapi with Victoria Island in its centre. The peaks of the Andean Chain, including Mount Lopez, Capilla and Millaqueo rise to the west of the lakes. Your tour returns via Lake Moreno and Clover Lake to your hotel. (B)

DAY 5 Monday 16 September Bariloche / Buenos Aires

You have the morning free to absorb this truly wonderful location and then after lunch be transferred to Bariloche Airport to connect with your flight to Buenos Aires. On arrival in Buenos Aires you will be met and taken to your hotel for five nights. This evening enjoy a welcome dinner at a fabulous typical Argentine restaurant. (MEALS INFLIGHT, D)
