INDIA HOLI GROUP ITINERARY
MARCH 2021

India offers a stunning variety in its expanse of about 3.3 million sq. km. You can wander from the chilly peaks of the Himalayas to the hot green Gangetic plains from the majestic Rajasthan deserts to massive mangrove forests to the famous sea and sand of Goa. And in each region, you will be greeted by totally different sound and colors, arts and crafts.

The Golden Triangle circuit of Delhi, Agra and Jaipur is on most travel itineraries yet these cities still offer something to the intrepid traveler. Perhaps the word 'golden' denotes the alchemy of the elements; the waters of the Yamuna river, the stone and earth of the monuments that have withstood the test of time and the fiery zeal of rulers who sought immortality. Retrace the alchemy of a millennium, through art, literature, economy, architecture, food, stories and folklore to convey an essence of what India is today.

DAY 02 | 10 MARCH, WEDNESDAY DELHI

Meals Included - Breakfast, Dinner

If trees and streets could talk, the stories that would pour out of Delhi would keep listeners mesmerized for years. With a history as a capital, Delhi has seen the tides of several rulers from those that people the pages of the epic poem, Mahabharata to the Tughlaq and Mughal empires from Persia, from the imperial colonial armies to the present-day government. Looted, plundered, and resurrected over the years, Delhi emerges from the ashes of her past to take her place in the world as a global capital - politically, culturally and commercially.

To live is to Travelshare the experience!

Start your day in Delhi with the following activities:

Rickshaw Ride (Old Delhi)

There is a lot to be said about a country, as diverse in its faiths as India, and as tolerant in its attitudes towards each. Today's political factions and media warmongering may create tensions between India's many religions; sow the seeds of dissension in the populace, yet the architecture of our cities tells a very different narrative. Head down to Chandni chowk which is partly by Rickshaw, partly on foot and palpably experience the sacred yet secular way of life that is so typical of India.

Visit of Colonial Delhi

The Colonial Delhi trail will take you past the India Gate, a monument commemorating the deaths of over 70,000 Indian soldiers in the British Forces during the World War I and older British buildings that house today's Parliament and Secretariat

Later drive to the famous Sikh Temple, Bangla Sahib Gurudwara in the company of your local guide. The highlight would be the visit to the community kitchen where volunteers work and feed thousands of devotees daily - the food is offered free to one and all.

After lunch visit Dilli haat followed by visit of Khan Market.

To live is to Travelshare the experience!

Dilli Haat

Before the notion that today's Delhi is just another beehive of power struggles and banal urbanity grips you, set your sights on a visit to Dilli Haat, a cultural exchange where artisans and craftsmen from India's myriad nooks and crannies come together in a resplendent spectacle of colour, skill and salesmanship. An open-air food plaza and craft bazaar, Dilli Haat is your opportunity to browse through the infinite varieties of cotton-weaves, pottery, woodwork, jewellery, brassware, and clothes brought to life by true masters of their respective crafts.

This evening transfer to Connaught place where your dinner is organised at the historical and local favourite - United Coffee house. (7.30 pm)

Udaipur, originally a thriving caravanserai later became a capital of local, royal clans. Udaipur's serene lakes, beautiful gardens and magnificent palaces lend it a nostalgia that has often earned it the acclaim of being one of the most romantic places in the world. Apart from a place in history, Udaipur has been immortalized in contemporary culture in iconic films from Jewel in the Crown, James Bond's Octopussy to Gandhi.
